Create, dare, reveal.

This first issue marks the beginning of a unique journey: a casting magazine that celebrates diversity, raw talent, and above all, creativity in all its forms. Here, faces aren't just beautiful - they tell stories, embody visions, and carry the kind of energy that challenges conventions.

We've searched across the globe to bring together models who don't fit into boxes - they redesign them. Singular, bold, often unclassifiable and always inspiring, these individuals each offer a striking presence. Every gaze, every stance, every captured silence becomes a form of expression.

This magazine is more than just a portfolio. It's a window into the aesthetics of tomorrow - a playground for visual experimentation and a source of discovery for creatives, art directors, agencies, and brands in search of authenticity.

Thank you to all who have chosen to be part of this first edition. You are living proof that the casting world of tomorrow will be diverse, inventive, and deeply human.

Welcome to our universe.

Every rebirth is a premiere: a fresh aesthetic era, a new sonic signature, a renewed story - yet the same relentless flame fuels her creativity.

ELLY_PAPAYA_OFFICIAL

Italy

Elly Papaya is a model AI and an Italian electro-pop singer-songwriter with a sensual, assertive, and alternative female voice.

Her style combines dark synths, provocative atmospheres, and lyrics exploring desire, emotional chaos, and distorted realities. With influences ranging from dark pop to the most refined synth pop, Elly Papaya oscillates between elegance and rupture. Each song is a fragment of a tense universe: personal, sensual, and electronic.
